

Dear Colleague,

The White House Initiative on Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, Asian Americans/Pacific Islanders in Philanthropy, Ford Foundation, Grantmakers in Health, Groundswell Fund, Health and Environment Funders Network, Ms. Foundation for Women, Rachel's Network, Rose Foundation for Communities and the Environment, and the Women Donors Network invite you to join us for a special philanthropic briefing on “Low Wage and Immigrant Women’s Work: Opportunities and Challenges for Advancing Salon and Domestic Workers’ Health, Safety and Rights.” This event will focus on the opportunities and challenges facing low wage and immigrant women working in the beauty salon and domestic work sectors in the U.S. The briefing will take place on Thursday, November 13, 2014 from 12:00 PM – 4:30 PM ET at the U.S. Department of Labor in Washington, DC, commencing with a networking lunch that will begin at noon. Moderated panels will include salon and domestic workers; advocates from the National Healthy Nail and Beauty Salon Alliance and the National Domestic Workers Alliance, among other groups; philanthropic leaders; and key federal and Administration officials. Please join us.

Low Wage and Immigrant Women’s Work: Opportunities and Challenges for Advancing Salon and Domestic Workers’ Health, Safety and Rights

A Special Educational Philanthropic Briefing

Thursday, November 13 from 12:00 PM – 4:30 PM ET

U.S. Department of Labor
200 Constitution Avenue, NW
Room C 5515 1 A/B
Washington, DC 20210

Please feel free to share this invitation with other philanthropic partners who might be interested.

This event is closed to press. To RVSP or to request more information, please email: WhiteHouseAAPI@ed.gov.